RE: MICROPAS Version 7.0

Dear Ms. McGhie:

Thank you for your letter of July 27, 2005 regarding certification of MICROPAS Version 7.0 for use in residential energy calculations in Southern Nevada.

Based upon the Technical Review of MICROPAS Version 7.0 Southern Nevada 2003 IECC software developed by Enercomp, Inc. and your certification letter of July 27, 2005, the building officials from Boulder City, Clark County, Henderson, Las Vegas, and North Las Vegas have approved MICROPAS Version 7.0 as an acceptable program for demonstrating compliant designs based upon the 2003 International Energy Conservation Code® and the 2003 Southern Nevada International Energy Conservation Code Amendments.

I trust this information will be of service to you. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at (702) 267-3611.

Sincerely,

Michael Bouse
Chairman

July 27, 2005

To Southern Nevada Building Officials:

Energy Inspectors of Nevada, have examined the July 26, 2005 Britt/Makela Group (BMG) Technical Review of MICROPAS Version 7.0 Southern Nevada 2003 IECC software developed by Enercomp Inc.

The Technical Review has demonstrated that MICROPAS Version 7.0 Southern Nevada 2003 IECC software meets the intent and provisions of Chapter 4 of the 2003 IECC, and the amendments as presented in the Southern Nevada Energy Code as adopted by the Southern Nevada Building Officials.

Energy Inspectors, as HERS Providers for the State of Nevada, and certified by the National Mortgage Industry Association, hereby approves MICROPAS Version 7.0 Southern Nevada 2003 IECC software for use in residential energy calculations for Southern Nevada.

Respectfully,

Paulette McGhie – “VP of Compliance & Builder Programs”
